"I am the Alpha and the Omega," says the Lord God, "who is, and who was, and who is to come, the Almighty." Rev. 1:8

DAILY MEDITATIONS:

MONDAY

Which of the four points from this weekend's message do you need to apply most? Ever feel anxious about the "end times"? So were the early Christians! Read 1 Thessalonians 5:1-11 for Paul's advice to a church that's apparently been stirred up by an end-times preacher. What is Paul's main point in verses 8-11? How can you apply it today? Pray for God to help you stay confident and clearheaded!

TUESDAY

Do you ever wonder what God's will is for your life? Here it is: Read 1 Thessalonians 5:16-18. What three things are God's will according to this verse? Whatever your circumstances, find three things for which you are grateful, and thank God in prayer now!

WEDNESDAY

On this Thanksgiving Eve, read the fascinating story in Acts 16:22-34. Paul and Silas practiced what they preached: Even in prison, they sang songs of praise to God! Long before the physical chains came off, they were free spiritually. How can you sing praises in spite of your chains today?

THURSDAY

Happy Thanksgiving! Read Philippians 4:6-8. Now put it into practice: Spend time thanking God for his blessings to you!

FRIDAY

Read Rev. 21:1-4. This is the ultimate point of the Book of Revelation: After all the persecutions the churches face, God will restore perfect peace to earth. Today as the world again faces war and violence, this promise is very relevant! Spend time thanking God for this promise. Ask him for the strength to stay calm and focused on Him.

SATURDAY

Read over any devotions you may have missed. Please pray for the weekend services as we begin our series Advent 2015: A Thrill of Hope!
